HAWAIIAN BOATS HIDE DOPE POPPY JUICE BROUGHT IN VIA ISLAND PORTS

STREET FIGHT OVER PROHIBITION

An unruly mob gathered on the corner of King and Bethel streets shortly after noon today and a hot argument ensued between one or two more or less indoctriened anti-prohibitionists and several prohibitionists, at least one of whom was, unfortunately, not acting as if he was sober.

A prominent contractor, more or less boozed, started to decimate against prohibition, directing his tirade against a fat but good-looking fellow who said he was a prohibitionist but refused to give his name to a representative of The Star.

Then a member of the committee of one hundred for prohibition gratuitously insulted a member of the press and acted as if he didn't know where-else he was fighting for prohibition or against it.

He threatened to do up the reporter and one or two others and, for some reason, is on the warpath.

An aged gentleman with difficulty separated the combatants and the prohibitionists who were anxious to fight it out on the street corner. No policeman was in sight, though the prohibitionists asked earnestly for police protection.

The reporter broke up the fight, to the best of his ability, at the risk of being mobbed, since the sympathy of the mixed crowd seemed to be with the men who wanted to start a scrap.

Much disappointed because no blood was spilled, the crowd dispersed, a policeman, as usual, coming along after the trouble was over.

WITNESSES ARE HELD IN TON CASE

PROMETHEUS ON HER TRAIL TRIP

ENGINES TO RECEIVE FINAL TEST THIS AFTERNOON AND MAY LEAVE TOMORROW.

At one o'clock this afternoon the collier Prometheus with the engineer officers of the cruisers Cleveland and Chattanooga and the engineer force of the Honolulu Iron Works on board, will start out on a speed trial of four hours for the purpose of observing the workings of the engines that have been repaired.

At eight o'clock this morning the port engine was turned over slowly at the Aloha street wharf and found to be working as well as if she had been doing service for several months. The starboard engine was turned over at noon and found to be just as good as the port one.

As soon as the trial trip is completed this afternoon and if everything is found to be perfectly satisfactory to the engineers, the Prometheus will take up an anchorage off the harbor until tomorrow morning when she will take the Chattanooga in tow and start on the long trip to Bremerton. On account of the poor conditions of the holds on the Cleveland it is very doubtful if any speed will be attempted on the way up.

Captain Hoffman is very anxious to get away for the coast, although he has enjoyed the stay which has been much longer than expected. The Cleveland will go directly to the Mare Island navy yard where she will be placed out of commission.

According to Sheriff Moon, Ton's body was badly burned in some places but not enough to hide where a knife had entered his stomach, which probably was the direct cause of death.

ARIZONAN HERE FROM THE COAST

Reporting a pleasant voyage the entire way from San Francisco, the American Hawaiian steamer Arizonan, Captain J. F. Nichols, arrived at port early this morning, a little over seven and a half days from the coast. Twenty-five hundred tons of general cargo consigned to local houses was brought on the big freighter. As soon as she was docked at the American Hawaiian wharf the work of unloading the cargo was commenced. As soon as the cargo is discharged sugar will be taken on board before the liner leaves for Kulukul Hill and San Juan Cruz. Nothing of interest hap-

BIG SMUGGLING OF OPIUM UNDER WAY IN THESE ISLANDS

There is an immense smuggling scheme in operation, according to the latest discoveries of the United States authorities, and the American-Hawaiian S. S. Co. appears to have the center of the stage as far as transportation of the illicit poppy juice is concerned.

Customs Inspector R. J. Taylor this morning, aboard the A. H. S. S. Arizona, just arrived, discovered two cans of opium in the grip of the second steward, a Chinese. He immediately reported the matter and numerous clues which had theretofore been in the possession of the customs and other Federal authorities combined to make a good case.

Leong Bang, for that is his name, was arrested and this morning was examined before U. S. Commisssioner Judd with the result that he bound over for trial in the sum of $750.

Another man, a Chinese, aboard the Arizona, is also under arrest, he having been discovered with five times of opium.

The defendant first named declares that he does not know how the opium came to be in his grip.

The system as understood by the authorities, is that opium is taken from the Orient to United States Pacific coast ports and then picked up by men aboard the American-Hawaiian and other companies and brought to these islands, usually landed at Kaanapali, Kahului or Hilo, and then brought here, sometimes by inter-island boats, unwittingly. It is expected that the whole scheme will be unmasked.

ANDERSON IS DISCHARGED

Oscar Anderson, who was arrested on a charge of threat preferred by his daughter, Alma, was found not guilty of the charge this morning and was discharged by Judge Andrade in police court.

Alma Anderson was adjudged guilty of contempt of court a week or so ago for answering Judge Andrade back when he told her that she had better behave herself in the future.

Chu Feng was found guilty of selling opium without a license and fined $100 and costs. It is understood that he will appeal his case to the higher court.

Judge Andrade was found not guilty of assault and was discharged.
